

The Oliver Lyseight Annual Lectures

The annual lectures are held during February – the month designated for Education in our denomination. The lectures offer additional space for us to engage in conversations about our Pentecostal heritage and how this informs our theology and missiological focus.

2010 Lecture: Saturday 6th February - 12.30pm to 3.30pm at the Leadership Training Centre, Northampton

Challenges of Black Pentecostal Leadership in the 21st Century – Pentecostal Hermeneutics. Lecturer: Rev Ruthlyn Bradshaw.

To register for the 2010 lecture, please contact Alison Reed via alison.reed@ntcg.org.uk or 01604 824233/8.

For information about Rev Dr Oliver A. Lyseight, founder and former Administrative Bishop of the New Testament Church of God in England and Wales, visit: www.ntcg.org.uk/corporate/DrOliverLyseight.stm.
